Shane Menzak - Auctioneer

Shane Menzak is a proud second generation auctioneer. Shane is a true professional in the auction industry and has had the pleasure of working for some of the most notable auction companies in Alberta.

As a fundraising auctioneer, Shane has the unique ability to electrify the crowd and utilize his sharp wit to maximize the earning potential of your event. Shane is a great story teller and is equally comfortable in relaying heartfelt tales as well as comedic comparisons to compel the crowd into supporting the cause of your event.

Shane has had the honour of working for some of the most successful charities including Ducks Unlimited, Little Warriors, STARS, St. Michaels Health Group, and many other local organizations.

Shane is currently the president of the Auctioneers Association of Alberta and makes his home along with his wife on their acreage near Bluffton, AB.
